THE HEALINGS

"You do not only heal for yourself, you also heal for your ancestors, your parents and the next generation to come. It is an investment for your lineage."

Ancestral Shamanic Soul Healing: Heal Ancestral Trauma

During this profound Ancestral Healing, I collaborate with your spiritual guides and (fore)ancestors in spirit. Together, we address unexplained energetic baggage that you carry but isn't originally yours. Energetic ancient pain and wounds left unhealed by your (fore)parents now receive attention and love.

Liberate yourself from obstructive energy hindering your journey to empowerment. Experience a unique clearing using the ancestral plant medicine Puro from Guatemala and an energetic shamanic soul healing & reading, in collaboration with your ancestors and guides.

Inner Child Trauma Healing: Embrace the Child Within

This nurturing healing provides a safe space to invite your inner child to surface and confront traumatic experiences from the past. Guided by my expertise, you can delve into the deeper layers of your consciousness—where childhood traumas are stored. Your inner child asks, perhaps even screams, for attention and love. Assure your inner child that it's safe and loved, creating space for soul healing and resolving childhood traumas. Free yourself from old pain and sorrow blocking your path to happiness. Address fears, insecurities, lack of self-love, anger, and heavy emotions. Unlock your inner child's enthusiasm and love for the world.

THE HEALINGS

Anchoring the Light & Self-love Healing & Activation

Grow in Self-love and Activate Your Life Energy

In this healing session and activation, I closely collaborate with the Source, the highest vibration, and the light of God, Mother Earth, spiritual guides, ascended masters, light beings, Elohim angels, and work with the Sekinah and Avalon-ELA energy. These forces and energies enhance the healing, reactivating the divine light (unity consciousness) within you.

I work on all chakra layers, activate the kundalini life energy, and operate on consciousness layers, facilitating healing and activation on a soul level. This beautiful healing and activation illuminate every cell and chakra in your body, strengthening the feeling of love and your inner power.

Soul Guidance and coaching

From the start I will connect with you on a deeper level than only from mind to mind. I will connect with you from heart to heart and soul to soul. I will listen to the whispering of your soul's voice and tune into the needs and next steps that feel aligned with your destiny. From the start this journey will be a collaboration with your ancestors and spirit guides, I will not be the only one guiding you. I rather see myself as a channel for all the loving beings that want to support you in your healing journey and journey of awakening your inner power.

Free yourself from limiting thoughts, old pain and start to embrace your true Self.

Over the past few years, I've had the privilege of meeting so many individuals, both men and women, who sense that something is holding them back from experiencing happiness in life. They yearn to be their authentic selves and step into their power. They feel a blockage, a desire to break free, yet often struggle with knowing how and where to begin. As our self-awareness expands through inner work, we become increasingly aware of the blockages, limiting, and recurrent behavioral patterns and beliefs.

In many cases, these hindrances trace back to our childhood and even past lives, often intertwined with the behaviors and experiences of our parents and grandparents. This obstructive energy hinders us from fully experiencing happiness, and most importantly, from living our full potential as human beings and souls.

This is precisely why I began offering my healing sessions in a bundle—they complement each other beautifully. The results after these three sessions are remarkable; I can't say it any other way. People leave after 2 months with a smile, increased self-confidence, and profound trust, and in those moments, I feel proud—proud of them for being so courageous in working on themselves.

This healing bundle is a significant gift to yourself.
